

I find recent reports of ballot stuffing complaints by the Parents TV Council to be very concerning. I am very wary of attempts by any one focus group attempting to manipulate public opinion by controlling the complaint process.